

February 18, 2010

Elematec Corporation Announces Organizational Reform

Elematec Corporation at the Board of Directors meeting held on February 18, 2010 made a decision to restructure its organization as follows.

Description of organizational reform

With the revision of the segregation of executives' duties, Marketing & Development Department I and Marketing & Development Department II of Marketing & Development Division will be integrated to be reorganized as Marketing & Development Department effective April 1, 2010.